

GOVERNANCE 2023

The governance and conduct of the Academy's activities are subject to mandates voted by the Plenary Assembly.

The Bureau is the executive body of the Academy. It is composed of the President, the Vice-President, the Delegate General and the Past President. The Chairman of the Planning Committee and the Delegates for International Affairs and Communication participate in the Board.

President: Denis Ranque
Vice-President: Yves Bamberger
General Delegate: Paul Friedel
Outgoing Honorary President: Pascal Viginier

The Academic Council deliberates on the general orientations and the programme of activities of the Academy. It is made up of the Bureau, ex officio members elected to various positions within the Academy, and elected members.

Chair of the Planning Committee: René Amalberti (also participates in the Bureau)
Delegate for Key Skills and Training: Alain Cadix
Delegate for International Relations: Gérard Creuzet
Delegate for Communication: Manoelle Lepoutre
Elected members: Olivier Appert, Philippe Jamet, Patrick Ledermann, Claude Nahon, Dominique Vernay et Thierry Weil

Nine divisions, led by an elected president and vice-president, develop a forward-looking vision of their field of interest. Cross-divisional project groups on cross-cutting issues can also be created by the Bureau.

Nutrition and health (Louis Dubertret, Bernard Daugeras, François Képès, Jean de Kervasdoué, Gilles Trystram)
Culture and leisure (Dominique Ferriot, Bernadette Bensaude-Vincent)
Education, training, employment and work (Alain Cadix, Alain Bernard, Jean-Pierre Chevalier)
Energy (Dominique Vignon, Isabelle Moretti, Bernard Tardieu)
Environment and impacts of climate change (Pierre Toulhoat, Yves Levi)
Digital (Gérard Roucairol, Jean-Claude André, Albert Benveniste)
Industry and services (Dominique Vernay, Victoire de Margerie, Alain Pouyat, Yves Ramette)
Habitat, mobility and cities (François Bertiere, Christophe Midler)
Technologies, economy and societies (Christian de Boissieu, Corinne Gendron, Joëlle Toledano, Olivier Appert)

Four committees, composed of elected members, deal with ethical aspects, recruitment, academic activities and quality respectively.

Ethics, Society and Technology Committee (Président: Alain Bravo)

Quality Committee (Président: Jean Frêne)

Planning Committee (Président: René Amalberti)

Recruitment Committee (Président: Yves Bamberger)

The delegations for communication, key competences/training, awards, publications, international relations are headed by an elected member.

Delegate for communication: Manoelle Lepoutre

Delegate for key skills and training: Alain Cadix

Delegate for awards: Catherine Langlais

Delegate for publications: François Lefaudeaux

Delegate for international relations: Gérard Creuzet

Territorial Delegate for the South East: Bernard Tramier

The missions Technology and Gender Diversity, and Youth, are entrusted by the President to designated members

Technologies and gender diversity (Leaders: Catherine Langlais, Alain Bravo)

Youth and the Academy of Technologies (Leaders: Philippe Jamet, Claudine Schmidt-Lainé)

The Academy's Direction supervises a permanent team without which the academic work and life, based on voluntary contributions, would not be possible.

Director: Marie-Hélène Nadal